St. Mark's Liturgical Ministry is looking for you! If you are confirmed we invite you to consider volunteering to train to be an Extraordinary Ministry (EM), a Lector, or both. We are for more help to cover when others are traveling or sick. For those who have received First Communion – think about becoming an Altar Server who assist the priest during the liturgy. Music Ministry enhances the liturgy through song. Consider actively participating in the celebration of the Eucharist taking on these roles. Contribute to the worship and deepen your personal connection to the liturgy and serving others. Contact Mary Pat Boger on Sunday after Mass or email our parish office at stmark@cbna.org.

We came upon a lesser-known feast day this past week, that of St. Albert the Great. This feast day held a special significance for our Bishop Steve, not only because he was a great Dominican theologian, but also because he shared the responsibility of Bishop. At 60 years old, St. Albert the Great traveled the entirety of his mountainous Bavarian diocese by foot, getting to know all his parishes. Pray to St. Albert this Friday for Bishop Steve in his work as shepherd of our Diocese!

The Universal Catholic Church Celebrates Young People.

We are familiar with WORLD YOUTH DAY: The next World Youth Day will take place in Seoul, Korea in 2027. This will be the first World Youth Day to take place in continental Asia. Leading up to this, the Hol Father in Rome will celebrate the Jubilee of Young People in 2025 jubilee year.
